Planned Career Break Due to Medical Issues   April 2021- Present
- I had to take a career gap due to medical reasons, which required me to undergo surgical procedures.
- During this time, I was unable to work, but I took the opportunity to focus on my health and well-being. The time presented me with a unique opportunity to develop my self-discipline, resilience, and proactive problem solving.
- I also dedicated this time to upskilling by enrolling in online courses and through self-directed projects. I completed courses in Python Full Stack Web Development including frameworks, React and Web Design.
